

Northland Lunch Date

Melba's Verandah

Sunday 8 August 2010

Would you like to have lunch out with friends?
A chance to get a little dressed up.
Enjoy some fine food and maybe a glass of wine?
Then join us for our next Northland Lunch Date.

With our pickups complete, we will make our way up the Pacific Highway to the town of Broadwater. Sugar cane is at the heart of the development of Broadwater, with the first mill built over a century ago alongside the Richmond River. The town has many interesting old buildings including an old Church now a residence and an old house now Melba's Verandah Restaurant.

This award winning restaurant combines quality cuisine with great service by offering delicious old fashioned home cooking in a stunning garden setting. The menu has a good variety of reasonably priced meals or choose from the options on the blackboard menu. (meals & drinks own expense).

After a lovely lunch we'll return to our homes.
